Areas of activity	Innovative activity, project or solutions	Activities carried out	Expected results
AzTU Volunteers internship program	Involvement of students in the internship program	To support the development of students' knowledge and skills by directing them to appropriate structures	Adapting students to the professional work condition, improving technical and communication skills
Artistic creativity	Projects related to painting, artistic recitation, handicrafts	Organization of art classes at the university, as well as exhibitions, masterclasses, auctions, art-recitation competitions	To improve students' general outlook, art skills
Development program on SMM	Conducting trainings	Delivery of social media information to students within 2 months	They will be able to define the target audience and prepare content according to it, they will learn and apply the secrets of new generation trends, they will learn how to use social media platforms at a professional level.
Let's Talk English language development program	Conducting conversation lessons	Conducting continuous interactive training and engaging students	To increase students' communication skills and vocabulary in a foreign language

Spartacia	Holding sports competitions	Taking into account health opportunities for teachers and students, holding competitions in 5 sports - futsal, table tennis, checkers, chess, volleyball	Promotion of sports, healthy life, increasing participation of young people in sports
Students' soft skills, personal development programs	Conducting trainings	To support students' self-development in such topics as psychological leadership, stress relief etc.	Helping them to achieve their best results in students' personal development plan
Fight against bad habits, human trafficking, crime problems	Conducting training and events	Regularly conducting projects on struggling measures with state institutions and promoting this topic among students	Encouraging young people to stay away from harmful habits and discourage them
Artificial intelligence, technologies and computers	Conducting training and courses	Conducting presentations during training	To improve students' computer skills, and increase awareness of artificial intelligence systems
Ecological cleanliness	Organization of projects	Carrying out environmental actions, landscaping, tree planting, agrotechnical maintenance of greenery, landscaping works	We bring the importance of environmental protection to the attention of students and call them to joint action in the struggle against environmental problems

Intellectual Games	Organization of competitions	Directing students to intellectual games in such formats as Hamsa, brain-ring, What? Where? When? and so on.	To create an opportunity for students to achieve the development of logical thinking and outlook, in addition to their knowledge and skills.
Health	Conducting events, promotions, laboratory tests	Organization of various health tests, educational (early and consanguineous marriage, AIDS, choosing the sex of the child to be born, reproductive health behaviors, AIDS, etc.) events, blood donation campaigns	Assisting in the development of the field of voluntary blood donation, instilling a healthy life in students
Creation of various student clubs within the university	To direct the clubs of student organizations	To guide and supervise the holding of events, meetings, competitions	Spending the student's free time efficiently and usefully
Students' participation in international projects	Students representing Azerbaijan and AzTU at the international level	To ensure the participation of students in the LXVIII Council meeting of the international organization ESİEM in Portugal, to support the participation of students in the "Best diplomats" international simulation held in	To acquire new knowledge and skills at events held in foreign countries and to contribute to their application at the university;

		Turkey
Youth Individual Projects Grant Competition by the Youth Foundation of the Azerbaijan Republic	To attract students to participate in the competition	Guiding students, providing support to the project writing process	To design and implement students' ideas and participation in competitions